Tyler Diocesan Council of Catholic Women

2009
Council
Of

Angels

My Dear Friends in Christ,

The Tyler Diocesan Council of Catholic Women is renewing its Council of Angels to help us in our many labors for the Diocese of Tyler. The National Council of Catholic Women was founded by US Bishops as a federation of Catholic women's organizations. It is an organization, of diverse groups of Catholic women, coordinating and responding to the many needs of each parish, as well as diocesan and national needs. One of our primary focuses is respect for life in all its forms.

While the Tyler DCCW annually generates thousands of volunteer hours, countless prayers, and financial support for several ministries, we lack any regular source of funding for our operating expenses and the continuing education of the women who voluntarily do so much for all of us in East Texas. What we need are Angels to help us out!

We realize you are continually asked to donate for many worthwhile causes in your parish and community, but please, be an angel. Consider a tax deductible contribution for the Tyler Diocesan Council of Catholic Women. Your donation will enable us to keep focusing on the broader needs of the Church in East Texas.

Together we can make a difference!

Respect for Life

The Council actively seeks to support our Bishop's efforts to increase society's respect for all life and actively promotes legislative and educational programs that affect us all.

The Gabriel Project has been established in each parish in the Diocese, offering immediate and practical help to any woman faced with a crisis pregnancy. (888-300-5112)

Other Diocesan Projects

- ✚ Supporting our seminarians through an annual presentation of a Seminarian Burse, prayerful support, and active involvement in ordination celebrations.
- ✚ Reaching out to women worldwide through the Catholic Relief Services' Water for Life Program, and Madonna Plan, by increasing awareness, concern and involvement.
- ✚ Empowering individuals through educational programs and resources in parishes for: drug and alcohol awareness, environmental stewardship, children and a safe environment (CASE), domestic violence, individual community needs, and national and legislative involvement.
