

WELCOME!

Thank you for considering the Diocese of Tyler Chancery office as a potential employer.

The Diocese of Tyler diligently strives to provide a safe environment for all of its ministries and programs, especially those with children and youth. Safe environment training programs are in place to assist adults and children to recognize the signs of child abuse and to report suspicions of abuse to civil and Church authorities. Criminal convictions checks and reference checks are conducted on qualifying applicants for employment at all church locations within the Diocese of Tyler. Background checks are updated periodically.

For all employees and volunteers, the Diocese has clear standards of behavior and appropriate boundaries, including reporting protocols, which are found in the "Code of Ethical and Integrity Policy." [See www.dioceseoftyler.org, under the Our Offices tab, "Ethics & Integrity".]

The Diocese of Tyler complies with all applicable civil laws with respect to reporting allegations of abuse of minors to civil authorities and will cooperate with their investigation.
